Dear Mike:

Thank you for the time you spent with me and my team in our efforts to reach the “next level.”

We were impressed with your level of organization and guidance, before and during the meeting. Your approach was practical, and we left the meeting with tangible, focused objectives. You took our audacious goals and simplified them into manageable daily activities; exactly what we needed.

We look forward to acting on our commitments and propelling our business forward. We expect to be in touch soon to work on our next set of aspirations.

Best regards,

Michael N. Mazursky, CLU, ChFC
